Invited Workshop on Occupational Burnout and Organizational Stress

organized by

Petra Buchwald & Sonja Rohrmann

University of Frankfurt, March, Sunday 14, 2010, 2 – 5 p.m.

We have decided to bring together one of the most respected international scholar in the field of Health Psychology, Esther Greenglass, and you, who are an interested colleague or student, to dialogue and debate on the state of the art in the study of occupational burnout and organizational stress.

Professor Dr. Esther Greenglass, Psychologist

The internationally regarded researcher Esther Greenglass has kindly agreed to conduct a workshop on Sunday the 14th March 2010. The workshops will be held from 14.00 – 17.00 at the University of Frankfurt (full details and a map will be provided upon enrolment).

Professor Greenglass will present on
BURNOUT AND WORK ENGAGEMENT; THEORETICAL AND APPLIED IMPLICATIONS

First, Prof. Greenglass will deliver a presentation (max. 45 min.) which will be followed by comments, questions, and remarks by a pre-assigned discussant and then by questions and comments from the audience. We anticipate that this innovative interactive approach will render the workshop exciting and beneficial to all participants.

Possible issues:

1. Innovative programs for stress management and the enhancement of quality of work life,
2. Engagement at work: its antecedents and consequences,
3. Understanding work engagement and workaholism within the context of well-being at work,
4. Teacher burnout and its precursors: What can be done to help them?
